Representative George Allen
Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515-4607

Dear Representative Allen,

This is the third letter that I have written to you, no response was received to the prior letters.

In you letter to me of December 30, 1991 the following paragraph appears:

"I have come to Washington to fight for the taxpayers of the Seventh District, and you can help me successfully represent your views in Congress by communicating with my office. Your phone calls and letters are welcome at any time."

When I read that paragraph I thought that finally the voters would get representation that was interested in their constituents. Evidently I was wrong. It is inexcusable for an elected representative to ignore communications from their constituents. Just who do you represent, surely not this voter.

In addition to the unanswered questions in my first two letters, I also want this question answered.

*What is your position on pending HR
