

Automakers Move Toward New Generation of 'Greener' Vehicles

Company

C&EN West Coast News Bureau

Author

Deborah L. Illman

Publisher

C&EN

Document Type

Technical Papers

Source

C&EN, August 1, 1994, page 8 - 16

Abstract

The Partnership for a New Generation of Vehicles (PNGV) - nicknamed the "clean-car" or "supercar" initiative by some - involves the Big Three automakers; General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler. Besides near-term improvements in auto efficiency, emissions, and manufacturing technology, the initiative is aimed at the development of totally new production prototypes within a decade that will achieve up to three times the fuel efficiency of today's models.

Location

MATURI

Preliminary

12/04/95

Return to top of this document.